

WOMEN AND WORK

Sex (biological): the state of being a woman or a man, especially on the basis of their reproductive organs and structures.

Gender (social and cultural): is the range of characteristics and roles differentiating between femininity and masculinity.

1. How Does Gender Affect the Workplace?

- a) According to the video, what works are segregated by gender? Make a list with women's and men's works.
- b) What are the reasons for this segregation? Highlight the most important one.
- c) What's the meaning of the word "socialization"?

2. Gender Inequality in the Workplace

- d) Why do men promote or hire other men in positions of responsibility?
- e) Nowadays, who are more educated women or men? Give two examples.
- f) What's the earning gap between men and women?